Introduction

The StarMatch(tm) astrological compatibility report helps you compare two charts by 1) identifying each partner's emotional needs by describing their Descendant (7th house cusp), Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, and Mars; and 2) examining the way their two charts interact. After describing what each partner needs in their love life, the report assesses their interaction by describing the significant aspects between their charts. These aspects identify areas of attraction, harmony, and conflict. The "Strength" noted for each aspect shows its degree of influence on the relationship. The Strength combines the aspect's closeness of exactitude with its positive or negative value for compatibility purposes. The higher the Strength is, the more strongly the aspect is likely to be felt and acted out in the relationship.

Planets in Signs

Prince Charles' Capricorn Descendant

You are highly sensitive and intuitive and do not deal well with rejection, which causes you to shy away from making romantic advances. You take love and sex very seriously, and a measure of emotional security is important if you are to enjoy sex with your partner. It is essential that there be mutual trust and respect in any relationship you develop.

Persons with Capricorn descendant often marry partners who are older than them. You admire the qualities of honor and dignity in your mate and enjoy being "taken care of," although at some level you may also resent it. Relying on your lover to take care of your needs is one thing, but developing a totally dependent relationship is another. You would be happier with the former.

Camilla's Aquarius Descendant

Because of your strong ego and solid self-image, you will attract many partners. Your lovers will be unique and often unusual people, and each will share with you a different perspective on life. Usually, they have backgrounds that are very different from yours, such as race, religion or cultural upbringing.

While a committed relationship is necessary for you to feel truly stable, you may have difficulty maintaining anything long-term because of your strong need for personal freedom. Any partner who tries to restrict or control you is likely to lose you. You require a mate who is as independent as you are and who is willing to be less demanding and more supportive of your own individual pursuits.

Romantic Compatibility Report for Prince Charles & Camilla

Prince Charles' Sun in Scorpio

Life is an intense experience for you, and you need to express your passion in all that you do. You go for either all or nothing in your relationships (nothing in between) and won't hesitate to let your partner know this. You can be very persuasive and seductive, and you should resist the temptation to use sex to get your way. But your deepest wish is for a long-term commitment, and you can be just as intensely loving and loyal as you are jealous and possessive.

Your love relationships may be somewhat turbulent, and fights in Scorpio relationships are quite common. You may have a tendency to dig deep into your partner's psyche to reveal their darkest secrets, and they may feel they are being constantly probed. Those who enter into relationships with you will not emerge without going through a transformation. You need a partner who can withstand the intensity of your emotions and your sexuality.

Camilla's Sun in Cancer

You are very much like the crab in your relationships-- soft on the inside and hard on the outside. Only those close to you know how vulnerable you truly are. You are very private about your love life, and you don't appreciate others prying into your personal affairs or spreading gossip about you.

As a lover, you tend to lavish your partner with love and affection. You are generous to a fault, and you can engulf your lover with your all-consuming love. For this reason, you would do better with a partner who is not overly independent, or else they may see your constant attentiveness as clinging. You would do best with a partner who enjoys staring into your eyes for hours, and who wants to not only love you, but to merge souls with you.

Prince Charles' Moon in Aries

You tend to live for the moment and make lightning-quick decisions in your love life. For this reason, you may rush into love affairs too quickly before you have had a chance to accurately assess the situation. You need a partner who is exciting and spontaneous. Otherwise, you may find that you often leave him or her behind when you dash off in pursuit of new adventures.

Be careful not to let the affair become so intense that it burns itself out quickly. Look before you leap into an intimate committed relationship. You need a partner who can help keep the feeling of newness and excitement alive in your relationship.

Camilla's Moon in Cancer

You are subject to wild mood swings, ranging from blissful excitement to deep depression, and have a tendency toward possessiveness regarding both material things and lovers. Women with this Moon placement make very nurturing mothers, while men are responsible providers for their children. Although you are quick to bestow favors on loved ones, you always expect something in return and feel dejected if you don't receive it. Be careful not to use guilt to obtain your emotional goals.

You are good at planning for your retirement, and often once people with this placement pass forty years of age, they seem to become more youthful. It is important to you that you have the opportunity to be a grandparent. With business associates you are very shrewd and capable of making money quite easily, especially when it involves real estate and businesses located in the home.

Prince Charles' Mercury in Scorpio

You take sex very seriously and find it to be a very deep, intense experience. Since you have a special appreciation for having all of the physical pieces fit together in harmony, you tend to get the most you can out of sex. You are intensely passionate and have powerful sexual fantasies. It's much healthier to find a willing lover to playfully act out these fantasies than to try and repress them, which would result in tremendous frustration.

Your thoughts are very deep, but you will share them only with your closest friends. You are secretive about your life, even when there is really nothing to hide. To others you appear very mysterious. You have a powerful, passionate sex drive and should resist any temptation to use your hypnotic powers on others as a means of control and manipulation.

Camilla's Mercury in Cancer

You value privacy and share your innermost feelings with very few people. Once you choose a lover, you are very devoted and loyal. You need little more in life than someone to love and a comfortable home. Indeed, you tend to be more of a "home body" than a socialite, and you need a partner who has similar preferences.

You want to share everything with your lover, and to you the perfect mate is one with whom you can blend souls completely, so that you become one person. While this sounds blissful and ideal, attempting to bond so tightly with some people will cause them to feel crowded and pull away. Whether you are a male or a female, this placement can be a sign of someone who is prone to "love too much." You need a partner who will not take advantage of your complete devotion.

Prince Charles' Venus in Libra

With Venus in Libra, you can fall in love with the idea of being in love. Having a partner on the social scene is very important to you, especially if he or she is one of the beautiful people. You admire physical grace and beauty in a lover and feel your value is enhanced by having an attractive partner.

You would become quickly bored with a stick-in-the-mud partner. You need someone who is able to constantly change and adapt to life rather than someone who likes to settle down in a rut and get comfortable. Although you are attracted to a partner who is stable and reliable, they also need to be flexible and fun to be with.

Camilla's Venus in Cancer

You seek a deep love in which you can merge souls and personalities with your lover. You are totally devoted to your mate, and you seek such devotion in return. Be careful that this devotion does not turn into jealousy and possessiveness, which could result in your lover feeling trapped. Remember that a truly solid relationship is based on two strong individuals who share mutual goals.

Your sexual appetite is quite strong, partly because you allow your sexual energy to build for a while before releasing it. If you find this to be frustrating, try communicating your needs to your partner before you reach that point. They can only satisfy your needs if they are aware of them.

Prince Charles' Mars in Sagittarius

You are intensely curious, love adventure and can have a short attention span in matters of love. You enjoy the chase more than the actual culmination of a love affair. Because you tend to jump into any affair with vigor, you may need to develop more patience for engaging in prolonged foreplay and building up the anticipation before rushing into sex.

Since you are very enthusiastic about sex, you need a partner who is similarly inclined. You have a talent for cheering up your lover when he or she is down, and you set a good example with your optimism and zest for life. It is important that your partner have a philosophical outlook on life and hold strong principles. This will attract you more than anything else.

Camilla's Mars in Gemini

With Mars in Gemini you need constant excitement and stimulation in order to maintain your interest in a love affair. You are attracted to partners who have mastered the art of intellectual lovemaking. Your partner's mind must turn you on; mere physical attraction is not enough.

To avoid boredom, you may have several projects underway at any given time. Starting new tasks is easier than finishing them, however, until you learn to focus your energy. You are highly inventive and experimental in sex and have a very delicate, sensual touch. Your marriage partner will have to be able to adjust to your constant need for variety.
